G. B. Eagleston, who has been living on the bench east of here for the past eight years has sold out and will move to Sumner, Nebraska, where he has a large place. It is a safe bet that he will be back to the west in a short time.

Parma is working for a creamery and the people there are at present heavily interested in hogs and chickens. Nyssa has a cheese factory started. Ontario is promised a creamery and the reports from Payette and Weiser indicate that those places are going after creameries. There is plenty of room for cheese and butter factories at these several places and if they are supported by a large supply of milk it will not take long to make this the richest valley in the west.

W. E. Stewart, of Falls, was renewing acquaintances here this week.

For Sale Barley—$1.25 per hundred. C. E. Reese.

H. C. Boyer is in Portland this week selecting a stock of goods for the spring trade.

Mayor Trow and W. H. Doolittle were in Portland a few days last week and did some good boosting for the Ontario section.

Local News

The Misses Billingsley entertained a number of their friends Wednesday evening.

Harold Fleischer, of Emmett, was a visitor here Sunday.

Virgil Staples, the Vale postmaster, was visiting his relatives here last week.

A. J. Frost, of Oroville, California, was visiting his brother-in-law, W. H. Ceeli, last week. Mr. Frost has been a mining man for years and stated they will be mining in his section for many more years. Ontario looked good to him and he said he might return and buy a home here. He has been on a long trip, visiting thirteen states and no other section looked as promising as the one around Ontario.

Miss Joy, of Ontario, came in on Saturday's stage and will teach the balance of the term of school in the Denny district. Mrs. Sharp having resigned her position as teacher.—Jordan Valley Express.

L. L. Merchant will offer his household goods at private sale until March 15. The sale will include stoves, beds, rockers, tables, chairs, plate mirror, pictures, stands, also meat, lard etc. Riverside add, close to laundry.

Because Oregon was admitted to the Union on February 14, 1859, a suggestion has been made that it be called the "Valentine state." It is claimed that this pseudonym has advantages over the misleading "Web-foot" and "Beaver" which have done duty for so many years.

I will buy poultry every Monday at the Ontario livery barn. C. H. Bowman, Payette, Idaho.

DOROTHY JAQUISH WILL REPRESENT ONTARIO AT NYSSA

The declamatory contest given last Friday evening at the Dreamland by the pupils of the sixth, seventh and eighth grades was greatly enjoyed by the audience which packed the theatre to its limit.

After the four reels of pictures, a double quartet of eighth grade girls gave some pleasing selections and the contestants followed. They were: Stella Millikin, Arthur Young, Mary Atherton, Dora Plughoff, Dorothy Jaquish and Bessie Lochett. All acquitted themselves most creditably, showing they had been carefully trained.

The judges were J. R. Blackaby, Mrs. H. H. Whitney and Mrs. S. D. Dorman. While they were deciding the quartet sang and then Mr. Blackaby announced the decision in favor of Dorothy Jaquish, whose declamation was well rendered.

Dora Plughoff, who delivered an amusing monologue, was selected for second place.

The winner will represent Ontario at the county declamatory contest March 8th and this time Ontario is confident of bringing home the cup.

Married

At the home of A. R. White Thursday afternoon, February 20, 1913, John C. Green and Beulah L. B. East were married by Rev. Thomas Johns in the presence of their immediate friends.

After the ceremony all sat down to a fine dinner which was prepared for the occasion. Everyone wishes Mr. and Mrs. Green a very happy and prosperous wedded life.

In Loving Memory.

A large audience gathered at the Congregational church Saturday afternoon to pay a last tender tribute to the memory of Harry F. Lackey.

Only sympathy seemed expressed in that gathering and the relatives are grateful for the kindness of many friends in their trying time, still the thought comes, touched with tears, that perhaps if a discouraged boy in Boise a week ago had fully realized how many hearts in Ontario were beating warm for him and how many loving hands would have reached to his help, the pitiful story of the week might not have been written. Even to know how his football friends still cared would have been sweet to him.

If we could only know today how tomorrow's heartaches might be saved, we would not pass priceless opportunities in our blindness unseeing.

While those who loved Harry best must bow humbly under the burden of regret that it could not be theirs to give the needed courage, they know with certain vision that the sweet, affectionate nature and high ideals and longings of the lonely boy are immortal and will have time and room to blossom under happier conditions. Despair is not crime and the Father who marks the sparrow's fall loves tenderly each child of His.

Had we known a heart a-weary,
Fainted there beside the road,
How our lagging feet had hastened,
To make light the heavy load.

But above the sob of sorrow,
Softening the vain regret,
Comes the message, low and tender,
God who loved him, loves him yet.

CLUB NOTES

The regular meeting of the Work and Win club was held February 25 at the home of Mrs. Charles Emison. It was guest day and the program was listened to with interest by a large audience of club members and their invited guests. The business manager of the Woman's edition of the Argus rendered her report, also the chairman of the entertainment committee and the club discussed some plans for dispensing the funds earned.

The subject of the afternoon concerned children and schools and besides the two papers on "Child Welfare" read by Mrs. Stoetzel, and on the "Ideal School Environment" by Mrs. Pinney, the club was given an interesting talk by Mr. Bailey.

Mrs. Stoetzel said that she felt that the subject of child welfare was so large that she could not do it justice within the scope of a single paper and she wished that the club would take up the subject for an entire winter's work.

Mr. Bailey, who followed Mrs. Stoetzel, said that environment played a more important part in a child's life than any of us realized. He spoke particularly of the necessity of adapting the courses of study in the schools to the needs of the community which they serve.

At the close of the program refreshments were served.

Card of Thanks

We desire to express our sincere thanks to our friends and all who assisted us and for the many acts of kindness shown us during the illness and death of our beloved mother, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Draper and family.

According to the report of the Rogue River Valley Fruit & Produce association just made public, that organization shipped 185 cars of apples and 99 cars of pears from the valley in 1912. This represents about 75 per cent of the total production of the district. On pears the average prices received were: Howells, $1.75 per box; Anjou, $2.26 a box; Bosc, $2.02 a box; Bartlett, $1.09 a box. On apples the prices were: Spitzenbergs, $1; Newtowns, $1.41; Ben Davis, $1.46.

While many sheep are still dying on the Lower Powder and in the vicinity of Goose creek, near Baker, still it is thought that the worst of the epidemic is over, and that the death rate, which was hundreds a day for several days, will soon be reduced to little or nothing. State Sheep Inspector Dr. W. H. Lytle of Pendleton is still working in the affected district and has not changed his first diagnosis that poison fodder was the cause of the epidemic. While it is impossible to estimate the total loss to sheepmen, it will run into thousands of dollars. Thousands of sheep and lambs had died, which a little later would probably be worth from $2.50 to $3.00 apiece.
